Will the temple ever be built? Blackwood was assigned the task of creating background music for the entire Middle Eastern region. He was to travel to the Middle East and meet with the elders - the leaders of the native tribes - and even learn Hebrew to get an idea of their thoughts and ideas about the upcoming project. From New York he sent word that a consortium of nations in the Middle East are sponsoring a temple that will certainly stand. Due to the sensitive situation of many of the tribes there, foreign visitors will not be permitted. There is a need for a menorh (horn) blast announcing the arrival of a foreign measurer. Public reaction to the news of the temple is divided. Americans are enthusiastic in support, but some in the Middle East are upset by the news that they will never see the temple completed. No one in either camp is convinced where he will report next. You know it's gonna be good when ABC News runs out of words... and chyron. Thetans had a fixed destination for the Middle East: Israel. They are people from another planet! It may seem nice to be green with envy at the thought of living on Mars or Saturn. Then again, it may not seem so nice to be smeared with poison or even shot with a laser gun. That's because the residents of Mars and Saturn are members of some
